Three area councils reject water study

It is practically back to square one in regard to provision of area water services in Napanee, North Fredericksburgh and Richmond Townships, following a meeting of the three municipalities Monday night.

The meeting was held to discuss a report for which all three municipalities have been waiting since 1970 and which was received from the Ontario Ministry of the Environment several weeks ago. Both rates and the areas to be served were stumbling blocks to acceptance of the report The Beaver has learned. The meeting was not open to the press.

Spokesmen for all three municipalities stressed that the meeting was useful and that agreement was reached on rejecting the report. While the townships considered the proposed rates to be high, the rates were most unacceptable to Napanee.

"I think the main decision was that the three municipalities involved didn't feel they could go along with the proposal as presented by the Ministry of the Environment," said Napanee Mayor Lorne Smart. Mayor Smart added that there were a lot of good points in it.

As a result of the meeting, a committee has been formed of the reeves of all three municipalities, Mayor Smart and a member of the Napanee Public Utilities Commission to work with the Napanee Town engineering firm's representative (Barry Miller) in order to come up with a proposal on costs for areas that North Fredericksburgh and Richmond would like to see serviced.

"The sharing of costs of lines and costs of processing have to be worked out by the committee and be brought back to the councils," said Mayor Smart. He said that the report on water services is expected within a month and a similar report on sewers is expected within a month to six weeks. "It was felt that we had to come up with an alternative if we were not going to accept the proposal," Mayor Smart said.

Mayor Smart added that all municipalities were agreed that an urgency existed in relation to the addition to be built to the county home for the aged and the apartments for senior citizens to be built on the county home site.

"We were not altogether pleased with it," said North Fredericksburgh Reeve Alvin Fitchett. "We are going back and get the sewage at the same time," said Reeve Fitchett. "There is no point in putting in water and then in three or four years coming along with sewer lines."

Much the same views were expressed by Richmond Reeve, Bruce Cuthill. "We had a favorable meeting," said Reeve Cuthill and engaged an engineer to come up with a study. "The engineer thought it would take about six weeks to come up with a proposal for enlargement of the disposal plant," he added. "You can't develop a water area and not make provision for taking it away," Reeve Cuthill said.

Reeve Cuthill emphasized that provisions should be made soon for the addition to Lennox and Addington County Home for the Aged and for the proposed senior citizen apartments to be built on the same site.

COMMUNITY PROGRAMMING was launched last Thursday evening on Cable TV, channel 9. The Napanee Kinsmen produced a live television "Kingo." Participants play at home on cards purchased each week at local merchants. When viewers have filled their cards they phone into the local studio where their win is verified. Cameraman Al French is seen above checking his camera angle as announcer Bob Hart prepares to start the first Kinsmen Club's "Kingo" on television. Napanee-Deseronto Cablevision is offering its facilities to any group or organization which might be interested in producing a program for local viewing.

Club to buy land for Civic Centre

Napanee Lions Club accepted a recommendation of its directors Monday night, that a six-acre property west of No. 41 Highway, immediately north of the Napanee Shopping Mall be purchased.

The club is negotiating for the purchase of the property as a site for a proposed civic centre.

It was emphasized by a spokesman for the club that the approval of members only permits negotiations for the purchase to be carried out. The necessary permit for building would have to be obtained from Richmond Township and an agreement would have to be worked out with Napanee for the provision of water and sewer services.

The property begins right north of the shopping mall, starting at the rail fence and runs to the creek.

Store owners at meeting in Kingston

Napanee merchants through their Chamber of Commerce were well represented at a meeting at St. Lawrence College in Kingston last Friday afternoon called by Hon. George Kerr, to determine attitudes toward retail store hours. It was one of a series of similar meetings being held by Mr. Kerr in different parts of the province.

Attending from Napanee were, Bill Sanders, president of the chamber, Bill Ramsay, Herb Knuth, Henry Doornekamp, Ron Wilson, Herb Hayes, Robert Miller and Bob Roblin.

Approximately 300 sttended the meeting which was held in the college Legal Hall.

The consensus was for stores to be open six days a week and two evenings, Mr. Sanders told The Beaver. "Pretty well everybody backed this." One "consumer" representative at the meeting wanted stores open at all hours, without restriction, Mr. Sanders said.

"We felt we were from a smaller community, a town of 5,000 and we are behind PUSH," said Mr. Sanders. PUSH stands for provincial uniform store hours and represents the efforts of a group of Ontario retailers to press the Ontario Government to pass legislation regulating the number of hours stores can remain open.

While Mr. Kerr declined to tell the meeting what reaction he had received at other meetings he has held, Mr. Sanders said he later heard Mr. Kerr in a television interview indicate that his impression was that it was about 50–50 for and against the regulation of store hours by the province.

"We considered that we were also there as consumers," Mr. Sanders said. "The bigger corporations are opening longer hours and forcing the smaller retailer to keep open longer hours to survive. It has always been my opinion that the backbone of any industry is the small business. However, the bigger they are, the stronger they seem to be."

Mr. Sanders said that Mr. Kerr made reference to voters and they — the consuming public — make up the largest number of people so he is seeking to find out what the attitude of the general public is.

"We will just have to wait until the legislation comes out," said Mr. Sanders.

IN 3 MONTHS

Survey shows food prices 8% higher

Results of the January survey of food prices for 10 selected items in stores in six Eastern Ontario centres have been made available by J. B. Harns, president of the Eastern Ontario District of the Purchasing Management Association of Canada.

The area covered is from Trenton on the west to Brockville and Smiths Falls on the east.

"Our findings indicated for the 10 selected items in the food basket that the low price at Belleville's Miracle Food Market was $10.58 and the high price of $11.04 was at Napanee's Dominion Store," Mr. Harns stated in the report. "It should also be noted that the average price of the 10 selected items for the food basket was $10.79."

Prices at Miracle Food Market, Belleville were two percent below average. At Loblaws in Trenton, prices for the 10 items were one per cent above average. At A and P in Kingston, prices were one and one half per cent above average. At Payless in Brockville, the prices were one per cent below average. At Dominion Store in Napanee, the prices were found to be 2.3 per cent above average and at Loblaws in Smiths Falls, the prices were two per cent above average.

Mr. Harns said in commenting on the survey that "It should also be noted that the spread from the lowest to the highest basket price is 4.3 per cent for the month of January. Calaculating lowest and highest price for any item at all stores a saving of 18 per cent could be realized. The Purchasing Management Association do not feel at this point that significant conclusions can be drawn other than a noticeable increase in the prices of the baskets at each local from the start of the survey amount to approximately eight per cent."

The monthly surveys were started in November last year.

For example a king size box of Tide at Dominion Store, Napanee has increased from $1.69 in November to $1.97 in January. A 12 ounce can of Johnson's Pledge however has only increased from $1.29 in November to $1.39 this month and Dominion at Napanee had the lowest price of any store included in the survey on this item.

While a 10 pound bag of P.E.I. potatoes at Dominion in Napanee increased from 89 cents in November to 95 cents in January this was the pattern for all stores included in the survey.

Christie biscuits (one pound box) have remained at 52 cents at Dominion here throughout the three months of the survey. The same product cost 50 cents at Loblaws in Smiths' Falls in both November and January.

A three quart bag of homo milk has remained at $1.03 at Dominion in Napanee for the past three months and this is the same price as at Miracle Food Market in Belleville. The lowest price for milk the past three months has been at A and P in Kingston where the price for a three quart bag of homo milk has remained at 89 cents.

The price for ground chuck, at $1.28 a pound was highest at A and P in Kingston, Miracle Food Market, Belleville and Dominion in Napanee. The lowest prices were found at Payless, Brockville and Loblaws in Smiths Falls where the price was $1.19 per pound.

Eggs, extra large, were highest at 99 cents at A and P Kingston and Dominion in Napanee. The lowest price, 90 cents was at Loblaws in Trenton and Loblaws in Smiths Falls, where the price was 91 cents a dozen.

Weather at its worst!

Freezing rain which hit most of Ontario on Friday night and again on Sunday and Sunday night did not result in any serious accidents in Napanee and area.

Both the Napanee Detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police and the Napanee Police Department report only a few minor accidents, none involving any injuries.

"In weather like that, people drive slowly," said a spokesman for the OPP. "We only had a few petty things," said Napanee Police Chief, J. J. Paquette. "It was pretty quiet. There were not that many cars around."

On Monday all school bus runs in the county were cancelled. There were no instructions issued by the Lennox and Addington County Board of Education that classes be cancelled. It was left up to each principal.

Director of Education J. C. McLeod said about the only schools that were operating were those where the majority of students were within walking distance of the schools, such as Westdale Park and Prince Charles Public School in Napanee.

Ernestown Secondary School had the smallest number of students as they practically all come by bus. Only 200 out of 1,600 students turned up at Napanee District Secondary School and teachers were dismissed early in the afternoon.

Town to have 7 outdoor skating rinks

If the weatherman co-operates there will be plenty of opportunity for outdoor skating in Napanee the remainder of the winter.

Councillor Reg. Vick, chairman of parks and recreation has advised The Beaver of seven locations in town where outdoor skating rinks have been set up.

The locations are: a new rink at the Napanee District Secondary School tennis court which serves as a pad for the rink. Three rinks are located on asphalt pads on the Prince Charles Public School grounds. There is a tiny tot rink operating off Grange Crescent. There is a rink at the Rotary Club Pool and another just off Dairy Ave., at the rear of the Lennox and Addington County Board of Education building.

As well, Councillor Vick says there are two or three private rinks that have been set up.

Councillor Vick said that next year he hopes that an arrangement can be set up with the school board for outdoor rinks since if all were on school property, he feels that they could be better supervised.

"The big factor is the weather," said Councillor Vick, "We have had wonderful co-operation from the fire department in flooding the rinks."

HASTINGS COUNTY

Elects reeve from north as Warden

Jack McKenzie, Reeve of Faraday Township, said it was "like a dream come true" when he was officially elected warden of Hastings County last week. A 67-year -old retired Ontario Lands and Forests employee, Mr. McKenzie has served 20 years on township council. He was first elected councillor in 1944. His first term as reeve was during 1946-1947. Although his span of office was broken, his total years of service amount to 20 and he is beginning his sixth year of continuous service as Reeve.

He was first elected in caucus and officially nominated at the open council meeting by the defeated candidates William McCrae, Reeve of Huntington Township, and George Lyons, Reeve of Deseronto. They also helped Mr. McKenzie on with his robes and chain of office during the ceremonial inaugural meeting of Hastings County Council.

Mr. McKenzie called for continuing support from the City of Belleville. He felt that while some of the northern communities were more geared to Peterborough they should remember that Belleville was their city home.

School board gets 2 grants

Two grants totalling $12,137.73 have been made by the Ontario Ministry of Community and Social Services to the Lennox and Addington County Board of Education, it has been announced by the minister, Hon. Rene Brunelle.

The grants are, $10,000, as announced by the new chairman of the board of education, T. A. Tomkow in his inaugural address for the Gibbard Athletic Memorial Field. This is the maximum grant of 25 per cent available for the development of such projects from the ministry and is based on an expenditure of $40,000.

The remaining amount of $2,137.73 was the result of an application by the board of education for a grant on work done by the board on the playing field at Sandhurst Public School in conjunction with the township recreation committee.

The grants were included in a list of grants made by the ministry under the Community Centres Act, totalling $539,462.64.

County Priorities For 1974

Getting an early start on projects which he hopes to see completed or well underway in 1974 is obviously the intention of the new Warden, Bruce Cuthill.

In his inaugural address, the warden referred to the establishment of a county planning area and progress on an alternate route to No. 33 Highway "to alleviate the problems compounding daily in this area."

The new warden is to be congratulated for his forthright approach to the role of the county in bringing about needed improvements and progress in Lennox and Addington County. He referred to a number of areas of mutual co-operation between municipalities as an answer to what some feel is the inevitability of regional government and observed "we can perhaps service the needs of our people without completely revamping the present type of government."

He referred to favorable progress being made in discussions concerning water and sewer services in the area surrounding Napanee and forecast progress in another area — the building of apartments for senior citizens which he said he hoped would be built on the south portion of the county home property. Such units would be the first for residents of the county as those previously built and approved have been for Napanee.

From his address, it appears that the county is going to proceed with the conversion of the old county jail into a museum. The warden mentions that this would free space now being occupied by the Lennox and Addington County Historical Society in the County Library building.

Warden Cuthill cited areas where co-operation and a transfer of certain responsibilities has resulted in benefits to the county as a whole, the latest being municipalities which have combined their efforts in the field of animal control.

He also referred to the work of the county's Land Division Committee during the past two-and-a-half years as an example of what can be accomplished when responsibilities "formerly exercised by the Ontario Government can perhaps be done more efficiently by local authorities."

In all, Warden Cuthill made out a strong case for a vigorous and challenging year for the county in 1974. In seeking the office, he obviously was prepared to accept the responsibilities of leadership to accomplish the objectives he has set out.

Grants And Their Use

The use of special funds made available by the Minister of Education for North Addington Education Centre has been strongly questioned by trustee Roy Holtzhauer of Kaladar. Mr. Holtzhauer takes the position that what amounted to a special grant of $23,500 made available by changing the ministry's regulations should have been used to maintain or restore options dropped at North Addington Education Centre because of the necessity of keeping within grant ceilings imposed on secondary school spending by the ministry. Mr. Holtzhauer seems to be on sound ground in being critical of the board for attempting to write off the $23,500 against a loss in grants resulting from school dropouts.

Another instance of the board's attitude toward grants is found in the inaugural address of T. A. Tomkow, chairman of the Lennox and Addington Board of Education. Mr. Tomkow said he personally would like to see a grant of $10,000 for the Gibbard Memorial Athletic Field used to start development of playing fields in elementary schools.

The grant was for the Gibbard Field complex on which there was a substantial overexpenditure of approved funds. If public school playing fields need upgrading, the issue should be decided by the board on its merits and the cost included in this year's budget.

Getting The Message

It would be a miracle, but the powers-that-be might just get the message. The message is that the citizens of this country are chiefly concerned with bread-and-butter issues, not politics.

Our own MP here in Frontenac-Lennox and Addington, Douglas Alkenbrack, of Napanee, no doubt has found this out on his return home from duties in the House of Commons at Ottawa. What we are concerned about is the cost of living, inflation, the difficulty of dealing with government agencies, and the general headlong leap into uncontrolled spending in which the Government of Canada is now well advanced.

The House of Commons has recessed until Feb. 26 and many of the MP's returning to their constituencies have found that citizens are less concerned with wiretap legislation, the energy crisis, foreign ownership, or the Senate, than they are about such things as the following:

Cost of living; a fear that welfare recipients, the unemployed, and the minority groups are getting more than their share; the difficulty of dealing with government agencies; a fear of creeping socialism and a consequent shift to the right; and the threats caused by loose immigration practices.

The government must take the blame for inflation. They have been overspending our money at an almost unbelievable rate and are making up for it by collecting more taxes and leaving citizens with less take-home pay. In many instances, this loss to wage earners must be made up by the employers in the form of higher pay, and this must come from the consumers ultimately in the form of higher prices for goods.

Mr. Alkenbrack, and other MP's, and those who rule us, please take heed now before it is too late.

Postmaster Helpful

Deseronto, Ontario
January 17, 1974

Since reading my letter regarding the mail situation between Deseronto and Napanee, which you printed this week, I feel that I should have noted in that letter that our Postmaster, Mr. Lewis, tried to be most helpful in trying to locate my lost mail. He phoned the Napanee Postmaster but they could not find it. Thus I would like to give credit where it is due, in spite of the frustrations of lost and slow mail.

Thank you.

Deseronto Post Office

Deseronto, Ont.
Jan. 14, 1974

I would like to know which brilliant master mind thought of the great idea of closing the lobby of Deseronto Post Office at 12 noon on Saturdays until Monday mornings. I can understand it being closed on Sundays as most residents pick up their mail on Saturdays, providing they get to the post office by 12 o'clock, but what if some of us. like me, for instance make the mistake of going out of town and arriving back around one o'clock to pick up their mail, only to find the Post Office locked up tighter than Fort Knox, then having to wait until Monday to get their mail? I'm wondering, why did I buy a post office key. I suggest the lobby be kept open until eight o'clock Saturday nights to give residents going out of town a chance to get their mail. We are told the post office is closed because of vandalism. OK, can't one of our Police Force patrol the post office area on Saturday nights until eight o'clock? After all who comes first, the vandals or the taxpayers?

FOOD FOR THE FED-UP

Coming To Yourself

By
REV. GORDON C. SMYTH

A whole series could be written on the immortal Parable of the Prodigal Son (Luke 15: 11-32). However, I find the phrase, "when he came to himself", especially intriguing and suggestive.

The far country was more attractive at a distance than in reality. The son did not belong there. He had been "beside himself" to leave his kind of home. As the father said of him, he "was dead, and is alive again."

How deep that goes into our understanding of human nature! Never believe that the lustful, greedy, alcoholic, cynical, bitter or fighting self is the real self. Your true personality is the potential in you. Never believe that the latest bad news about the world situation is the final report. It is inconceivable that man is more influential than God.

No doubt the thought of his father's well stocked table had a lot to do with the prodigal's change of attitude. Feeding pigs was a degrading task for a Jew. He must have sunk pretty low to accept the job. It was not until he was in a state of complete destitution that the prodigal decided to return home. He was down and out before he came to himself. We have about reached that juncture in the world. The same may be the case with some readers of this column. If that spells tragedy, it also spells hope.

Here is the connection between religion and conduct. Your self-discovery is the yearning that only God can satisfy. Your true self is his son. How natural it all is!

An infinite law of love at the heart of the universe — that is the centre of theology. A world that permits moral alienation through the free will of man — that is the challenge to philosophy. He "came to himself" — that is the core of ethics. "I will arise and go to my father" — that is the soul of religion.

The late John Baillie, Scottish theologian, wrote wise words about the Parable of the Prodigal Son. "When, a few years afterwards, Peter and Paul and John went about in their turn to prove that same redemptive love of God, they were able to preach a better sermon and to announce a fuller Christianity than even the Master Himself had been able to do."

What did Dr. Baillie mean? He meant the timeless and ever timely story about the Teller of this parable. He meant the matchless story of Jesus and his love.

Saturday night, Kingston's Centre 70 came to town and defeated Perry's Shell 11-1. Kingston will be the team to beat come play-off time as they have a well balanced hockey club. They play good positional hockey and skate hard at all times. If given the opportunity, they'll waste few scoring chances. Perry's Shell play Gananoque this Saturday in Gananoque to finish off their regular schedule.

NEED CAMPERS

The RKY youth camp near Kingston wants more customers. John Youdan, of Kingston, told members of the Napanee Rotary Club at their regular weekly luncheon meeting here Tuesday, that the camp on Eagle Lake near Tichborne has been expanded and will take both boys and girls for summer camp periods of two weeks this summer. The camp is for youngsters seven to 16 years of age and costs $100 for two weeks. It is operated by the Rotary, Kiwanis and YMCA-YWCA of Kingston and any profit goes to provide camp periods for needy children. Mr. Youdan was introduced by R. W. Macpherson and thanked by Bryce Drew for his address to the club.

City Pets

Hungry growling of empty stomachs
Throbs in the early morning air.
Ugly creatures crawl grotesquely
Along the grey city streets,
Stopping by house and house
To eat.
Noisily they gobble garbage,
Lick their lips
And whine in high pitched groans
For more.
Crushing,
Grinding,
They swallow whatever they are fed.
Churning,
Breaking,
Slowly their filthy food is digested.
Stained and dirty,
Smelly beasts let loose ....
Gulping too fast,
They belch disgustingly
And let off putrid air.

People's Paradise

1030, Nanton Avenue,
Vancouver, 9, British Columbia.
Jan. 18. 1974.

Remember when we were proud to sing: "O Canada, our home and native land?" That was before the socialists and neo-socialists drove us off our land by way of massive taxation. "True patriot love in all thy sons command? Except those with loyalties to Castro, Mao Tse Tung and Breshnev!

"With glowering hearts we see thee rise" - rising taxes, rising food prices, rising interest rates and rising indignation among citizens. "The true North strong and free?" Free sanctuary to U.S. draft dodgers, Chilian radicals and European criminals; Free handouts to any kook who can spell gimmee: freedom to panhandle on the streets flourishing a switchblade; freedom for homosexuals to solicit on the streets and free government grants to do your own thing.

"O Canada, we stand on guard for thee?" Like fun we do! Most citizens are so apathetic they have allowed politicians, perverts and pink-petticoated manipulators to lead them around by the nose. I personally value my Canadian heritage too much to lie down and be trampled into the dust of any "people's paradise!"

YOU
TODAY
TOMORROW

There is only today between you and tomorrow

Which is why Canada Pension Plan benefits will be increased today and will be kept in line with the cost increases of tomorrow

What this means to you as a beneficiary

From January 1st 1974, Canada Pension Plan benefit payments will be adjusted to reach . . . then maintain a level in line with the actual cost of living.

If you are receiving monthly benefits that began during the period 1967 to 1973, your benefits have been recalculated so that the amount you receive in 1974 is related to the actual increase in the cost of living over the years your benefits have been paid. When you receive your January 1974 benefit cheque, you will see that it has been increased. The increase in your payment will vary from 8% to 20% and will depend on the year in which your benefit first became payable.

In future years, if living costs continue to rise, you can expect further increases in your benefits based on current cost of living data.

What this means to you as a contributor

As a contributor to the Canada Pension Plan, you are building a basic and portable retirement plan for the future and at the same time providing current protection for yourself and your dependents against the possibility of severe disability or early death.

In order to protect the value of your eventual benefits, the Canadian Parliament has passed legislation which ensures that the contributions you make today will give benefits that maintain the purchasing power of today's wages twenty, thirty or even fifty years from now . . . when you need it!

To achieve this, the Government plans to have the earnings ceiling — the maximum amount on which contributions are paid and on which benefits are calculated — increased each year so that it will reach, and then keep even with the average earnings of Canadian industrial workers. This ceiling will be raised from $5,600.00 in 1973, to $6,600.00 in 1974 and $7,400.00 in 1975.

This new earnings ceiling means that the year's basic exemption — the initial amount on which you do not pay contributions — is changed from $600.00 in 1973 to $700.00 for 1974.

These changes also mean that the maximum employee contributions will increase from $90.00 a year in 1973 to $106.20 in 1974. Your contribution is matched by your employer.
In the case of self-employed persons, the maximum annual contribution is increased to $212.40 for 1974 as against $180.00 last year. For earnings of less than $5,700.00, there will be no increase in contributions.

The change in the earnings ceiling means that the maximum retirement pension will rise from $90.71 for pensions effective in December 1973 to $134.97 for those whose pensions will begin in December 1975. As the maximum earnings levels for the years after 1975 continue to rise, so will the maximum retirement pensions in those years. There will also be increases in the maximum values each year for disability and survivors' benefits.

HUNTER — WEMP

Delores Ann Wemp, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wemp of Centreville became the bride of Robert William Hunter in a candlelight ceremony at Saint Luke's Anglican Church, Camden East on Sat. Nov. 23.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hunter, of Kingston.

Rev. Harold Murray was the officiating clergyman and the organist was Allan Wayte.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire style gown of white nylon sheer over taffeta with a lace trimmed neckline, sleeves and skirt and a shoulder length veil. Her flowers were a cascade of red sweetheart roses with trailing ivey.

The matron-of-honor was Mrs. Susan Irish, of Kingston and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Sharon McLaughlin of Kingston (sister of the groom); Mrs. Sally Henderson, of Kingston (cousin of the bride) and Mrs. Mavis Cronk, of Kingston (sister of the groom.) Miss Barbara Hough, of Brockville (cousin of the bride) was the flower girl.

The attendants wore floor length gowns of pale blue nylon sheer tops and royal blue velvet skirts. The flower girl, dressed in royal blue velvet, carried a basket of white carnations and wore a matching headpiece.

The attendants carried nosegays of white carnaions and wore matching headpieces of carnations.

The ushers were Ross Cronk, of Kingston and Ray McLaughlin, both brothers-in-law of the groom, and Brian Burrows and Lynn Revell, both friends of the groom.

The ring bearer was master Kevin Bailey of Toronto, a first cousin of the bride.

A reception followed the marriage ceremony in the Legion Hall at Napanee.

The bride's mother received guests in a gown of long turquoise chiffon and her flowers were gardenias and stephanotis.

She was assisted by the groom's mother in a long gown of flowered green and apricot chiffon. Her flowers were talisman roses.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and on their return, took up residence in Kingston.

For travelling, the bride wore a pale blue pant suit and navy accessories and a pink corsage.

Out-of-town guests were present from Brockville, Kingston, Trenton, Ottawa, Toronto, Burlington, Woodville, North Augusta and Belleville.

Prior to her marriage, the following showers were held for the bride: by Sharon McLaughlin and Mavis Cook, Kingston; Mrs. Carl Robinson, Odessa; Mrs. Grace Bailey, Napanee and Mrs. Susan Irish, Kingston.

SCHOOL ADVISORY GROUP SEEKS MORE INTEREST

Deseronto Public School Advisory Committee held a meeting at the school on Thursday, Jan. 17. The method of informing the general public of the dates and times of these meetings was discussed. The committee has no membership but is open to anyone interested in attending whether or not they have children attending the school. Although this fact has been continually stressed, the same group seem to attend. It appears people may feel they are not supposed to attend without a personal invitation which would be impossible. Principal, Al Camelford, will mention the next meeting in a school newsletter which will be sent home with children attending the school. This has been done in the past with little success but will be tried again in an attempt to make the general public aware that they are welcome to attend without an individual invitation.

In the past, students of the grades seven and eight were taken by bus to Belleville for home economics and shop classes. This system did not prove wholly successful for various reasons, one of which was that the students spent almost as much time travelling as they did attending classes. This year, rather than have one and a half hours of classes in shop and home economics, once a week, the staff will try holding a full week of home economics, shop and related classes at the Deseronto Public School. This will be in the form of a trial project which could be repeated during the next term if successful. The plan is for 120 students in 12 groups of 10 to be given instruction in their choice of a wide variety of subjects which will integrate use of regular subjects such as mathematics and language. Superintendent Robert Horwood and Trustee Ken Little have agreed to this trial project.

Other topics such as agendas, oral communications (public speaking), swimming, pre-kindergarten, films, community use of school, and use made of professional development days, were discussed before the meeting adjourned.

Recreation Director Criticizes Attitude Toward Sports

Napanee's recreation director, Jack Robinson, says he feels too much time is being concentrated on various "mini-sports" here and experts who could be helping in other ways, particularly with minor hockey, are not doing so.

Referring to a column in last week's Beaver by D'Arcy McKittrick on athletics for smaller children in a mini-sports program, Mr. Robinson, a former professional hockey player, says he feels hockey, Canada's national game, is being neglected. "We should have hockey at our high school, for instance, but we haven't," he said.

Mr. Robinson was referring to Napanee District Secondary School, whose physical education staff expertise is greatly needed in the community's hockey program, he says. The game is being sidetracked for other things and even senior basketball has disappeared from the school, Mr. Robinson states.

The Napanee Minor Hockey Association comes under criticism but most of its problems are caused by lack of volunteer help and there are people who could be giving this help but don't, he added.

AT DESERONTO

APPOINT WARDENS AT ST. MARK'S MEETING

Carl Beattie, Tom Jackson, David Johnson and Everett Martin were appointed wardens for the year 1974 at the annual vestry council meeting of St. Mark's Anglican Church, Deseronto, held on Sun., Jan. 20.

Annual reports were received and considered to be quite good. The parish has accomplished much during the past year both within its boundaries and outside. Accomplishments outside the parish boundaries included such items as helping a northern parish and installing new docks at Camp Hyanto, the dioceasan camp near Lyndhurst. Ladies of St.Mark's are continuing to visit local senior citizens' homes on a regular basis.

A program is underway for continuing repairs and maintenance of church buildings. It is hoped that more people can be involved in the direction of church programs through the setting up of special committees to work on such things as finance, buildings, and programs.

Deseronto Presbyterian Church Holds Annual Meeting

Presbyterian Church of the Redeemer, Deseronto, held their annual meeting on Fri., Jan. 18 starting with a pot luck supper. Chairman for the evening meeting which followed was Henry Klaver. Mrs. Harold Walmsley was secretary for the evening.

Mr. Klaver opened the meeting with a scripture reading and led in prayer. He asked for a minute of silence in memory of the late Mrs. Madeline Walker, past chairman of the board of managers, and treasurer, of the church.

Percy Brooks was appointed as the new chairman of the board. Secretary-treasurer is Mrs. L. T. McCullough.

Reports were given by the organizations, all of which seemed to have flourished during the past year. Rev. Robert Jones remarked on "what wonderful work" everyone was doing, accomplishing so much with so few people.

Plans were made for a bottle drive on Sat., Apr. 20 and the annual fun fair on Aug. 10. There was a short discussion on events to take place during the year.

In 1975 the Presbyterian Church of Canada will be celebrating their centennial. The first general assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Canada met in Montreal on June 15, 1875. Each church has been asked to plan something special.

In summary it was said that the congregation had a very successful year and it is hoped they will carry on their accomplishments in 1974. Rev. Jones closed the meeting with prayer.

A COLUMN ABOUT THE LENNOX AND ADDINGTON COUNTY LIBRARY SYSTEM

THE HOUSE OF LIFE — By Paul Brooks. A biography of Rachel Carson which traces her early struggles, her disappointments and her triumphs, leading at last to her emergence as the most eloquent spokesman for conservation in our time.

GOODBYE ARGOS — Leo Cahill with Scott Young. Cahill's six years as head coach of the Toronto Argonauts and the way he changed the laughing-stock of the C.F.L. into a powerhouse contender for the Grey Cup.

FROM TIME TO TIME — By Hannah Tillich. This autobiography by the wife of the eminent theologian is a collage of parable, narrative and poetic insights. It is the story of not just one, but two, lives.

I CHOSE CANADA — By "Joey" Smallwood. The unquenchable former Premier of Newfoundland chronicles his eventful life from birth in the tiny outport of Gambo until his retirement from active politics.

GERSHWIN: HIS LIFE AND MUSIC — By Charles Schwartz. Gershwin, who died at the age of 38, still remains the undisputed master of modern popular music. This biography looks behind the great personal success of Gershwin to the restlessness and dissatisfaction that ruled his life.

H. G. WELLS — By Norman and Jeanne MacKenzie. For may of us, THE TIME MACHINE, THE ISLAND OF DR. MOREAU, THE INVISIBLE MAN, and THE WAR OF THE WORLDS, are hallmarks in our reading experiences. This biography presents the man in full: bumptious youth, prodigious lover, and brooding intellect.

Many Attend Quinte Old Timers' Meeting

A large crowd attended the first meeting of 1974 of the Quinte Old Timers held at the Deseronto Lions Hall on Wed., Jan. 16. President Gordon Walker presided. After his opening remarks, Mr. Walker asked that tribute be paid to two local senior citizens recently deceased, Marni Thompson and John Heatherington.

Considerable discussion was held on the merits of serving tea or coffee and cookies at the drop-in meetings which have become so successful. The final decision was that such a lunch would be served with a minimal charge of 15 cents.

The birthday song was sung for those who had birthdays in the month of January. Total membership in the Quinte Old Timers is now 88 with more still joining.

The door prize, drawn by Gordon Walker, was won by Mrs. J. C. Reynolds.

After the regular meeting Grace was sung before the serving of a delicious lunch. The remainder of the afternoon was spent playing cards.

Next regular meeting will be held on Wed., Feb. 20, but drop-in meetings will continue in between with one noteable change, tea or coffee and cookies will be served.

Garry Oak is the only oak native to British Columbia.

MORVEN U.C.W.

The January meeting of Morven U.C.W. was held at the home of Mrs. H. Fralick on January 10. Mrs. C. Lambert, 1st. vice president, opened the meeting with a poem "For This One Day Alone". Mrs. H. Campbell had charge of the devotional. She read pieces of Scripture taken from Mark, Corinthians, Isiah and Lamentations and a reading for the New Year. Prayer closed this portion. The roll call was answered by 16 members. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. It was moved and seconded that $50 be given to the Sunday School for the year 1973. $100 is to be given to the Manse Fund and the sum of $50 from the sock money to the Salvation Army. Mrs. C. Lambert, social convenor reported for the committee. Dates were set for the Anniversary supper and the Harvest tea. A pot luck supper is to be held before the congregational meeting. Mrs. J. Darling accepted the presidency for the remaining of the year.

The program convenor Mrs. E. Thompson called for a committee meeting at her home next Wednesday at 10 a.m. The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. Withers on Feb. 13. It was moved that our meetings be moved to the second Wednesday of each month. Mrs. W. Denyes of the supply and welfare reported on a bale sent to an Indian reservation on Manitoulin Island. Good used clothing can be used at Deseronto by Rev. Betts. We were asked to save our Christmas cards, plastic egg cartons, used stamps and pieces of material. Mrs. H. Campbell read two letters from the foster child. The treasurer's report was given and the collection taken and dedicated. For a program each gave a thought, a poem or a Scripture verse for the New Year. A skit titled "A Dollars Worth of Love" was given by Mrs. H. Fralick and Mrs. E. Thompson. Prayer closed the meeting.

Lunch was served.

SOUTH LENNOX LEAGUE

AMHERST ISLAND, HAWLEY SEEK FINAL PLAYOFF SPOT

BY: D'ARCY McKITTRICK

When the Juveniles drop out of the South Lennox Hockey League playoffs to pursue the Ontario Minor Hockey Association route, it will leave five teams battling for the four playoff berths. So with Reserve holding a comfortable seven point lead in fourth spot over Hawley and Amherst Island, the remaining four games are crucial to these two teams, deadlocked with four points each.

Dave Lockhead recorded his third shutout of the season to lead the Napanee Tiremen to a 2-0 win over Amherst Island. All the scoring in the game occured within one minute and ten seconds of the second period. Gary Elder scored both of the markers the first coming at 8:15 of the middle stanza, the second at 9:25 of the same period. Thirteen minor penalties were assessed in the game, 11 being handed out in the final 20 minutes.

The Junior Farmers, paced by the two goal performance of Dale Desveaux, scored a 4-2 win over Reserve to remain tied with the Juveniles in first place. Each team counted once in the opening period, Larry McNiel for the Junior Farmers early in the period, Jim Horwood replied for Reserve midway through the stanza. The Junior Farmers tallied twice in the second period, John Hartwick was the first marksman, Dale Desveaux the second. In the final 20 minutes, the teams traded goals. Dale Desveaux picked up his second of the night at the one minute mark. Dan Brant closed the scoring late in the period.

The Reserve's loss, coupled with Jackson's win was the magic formula as the latter team moved into sole possession of third place in the league standings. Ron Lafontaine with three, and Gary Holmes with a pair, combined for five of Jackson's six goals in their 6-2 victory over Hawley. Lafontaine and Holmes each tallied once in the opening stanza, to open up a permanent lead. Brian Elder notched a goal for Hawley in the second period to close the gap a little. However Lafontaine counted his second and third, Holmes counted his second, and Mike Garrison added one to account for Jackson's outburst in the third. John Dickson scored the lone Hawley goal in the middle of the deluge.

Next week's slate of games matches Reserve and Amherst Island at seven o'clock. The Tiremen host Jackson's at 8:20, while the Junior Farmers meet Hawley at 9:40.

NDSS Girls Win Volleyball Championship

Sat., Jan. 12, Napanee District Secondary School, Junior Girls Volleyball team travelled to Kingston Collegiate and Vocational Institute for a tournament. The set up of the tournament was such that each team participating was guaranteed at least five games with the top four qualifying for a playoff berth.

After the scheduled five games, the Napanee girls had only managed two wins, and thus edged into fourth spot, qualifying for the playoffs. Their opponents in the semi-finals were Thousand Islands Secondary School, who the girls eliminated to advance to the finals against Smiths Falls. Good recoveries, strong vollies and strong serves were instrumental as the locals defeated their opponents two games to one, to emerge as tournament champions. The Junior team received a plaque, emblematic of the tournament championship.

Members of the team and management are; players; Kim Topping, Patty Hamilton, Patti Peters, Anne Thompson, Mary Wood, Diana Willard, Evelyn Stam, Karen Zatterberg, Jane Giles, Cathy Vankoughnet, Vicki Murphy, Treena Bird, Scorer-Timer; Mona Dunlop, Manager; Jennifer Munroe and coach Miss Broadbear.

WHAT'S THE SCORE?

By D'ARCY McKITTRICK

Any Canadian father who has risen before the sun on a Saturday morning, started, or at least tried to start, his automobile in sub-zero weather while an exuberant armored offspring yells "I'm gonna be late" knows what a special week this is. Minor Hockey Week, of course.

These momentus seven days are set aside to celebrate the great Canadian sport at the minor level. This is the big week in the hearts of thousands of young boys (and girls in some communities). Only once a year do many of their parents actually observe them in action. Their parents, along with those of most of the other boys, constitute a crowd of spectators that could turn any weak-ankled youngster into a "Bobby Orr for a day."

It is pleasing to note that our local association has organized a tournament, in which all the house league teams compete. The trophy which is awarded to the team in each category which wins the most games will probably not be as important as the crowded arena which hopefully will await each participant. It is not ridiculous to think that the arena could be filled to near capacity for the Saturday and Sunday on which the event will be staged. The fact that you don't have a child playing does not prohibit you from viewing this spectacle, and if you do have a participant in the family, you can't miss it. So for the sake of the younger generation, spend half a dollar and exercise your vocal cords at the arena this coming Saturday and Sunday.

While still on the subject of hockey, I have been informed that one of my subjects in last week's column, the Minor Atom hockey teams, just chalked up another victory to remain undefeated. The locals defeated Centre '70 6-5 last Saturday. Trevor Brant tallied twice while Kevin Clement, Rickey Burriss, Steve Murphy and Scott Thompson each added a goal.

Sat. Feb. 2 is a date to remember. The annual (eight year in a row) Napanee Blue and Gold Junior Basketball tournament will be held at the Secondary School. This year's tourney promises to provide an excellent exhibition of basketball with 16 teams, including the host Golden Hawks. Some of the best high school basketball players in the province will be shuffling around the court. The event will be staged in both gyms, starting at eight in the morning and running through till around nine o'clock at night. The winning team will receive the Students Trophy, which was donated by the N.D.S.S. student council and Boy's Athletic Association, a few years ago. For 50 cents, you'll have to go a long way to beat this brand of entertainment.

DECISION

Ottawa, December 21, 1973

PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT
CARRIAGE OF CBLFT AND GLOBAL COMMUNICATIONS

The Commission's Policy Statement on Cable Television dated July 16, 1971, sets forth the basic cable television services which all cable television systems are required to provide as a matter of priority.

A number of licensees in the Toronto and Hamilton areas have applied to the Commission for an extension of the temporary authority for the carriage of CBLFT, Channel 25 on one or more channels using the phase-lock technique until December 31, 1974 or the commencement of transmission of television signals from the CN Tower, whichever occurs earlier.

All of the licensees have made a firm commitment to implement expended channel capacity in the near future in order to enable the carriage of all priority Canadian television signals on unimpaired channels without deleting services which have been provided to subscribers. However, due to certain difficulties, many of the licensees are unable immediately to implement expanded capacity.

Relocation of the Toronto transmitters to the CN Tower on or before December 31, 1974 will increase the signal strength of CBLT and CFTO-TV and further impair cable system channels 5 and 9 so that the phase-lock technique for CBLFT will be ineffective for those channels on most systems.

At the Public Hearings licensees maintained that the carriage of CBLFT using the phase-lock technique has been satisfactory. Licensees also claimed that a minimum number of complaints have been received and that in each of these cases remedial action was taken. The Commission will accept the use of the phase-lock technique as a temporary expedient until the end of 1974 provided licensees continue to provide remedial action where necessary.

The Commission notes that the following licensees are now carrying CBLFT on an unimpaired channel:

Citizens Cable T.V. Limited (Burlington, Ont.)
Aurora Cable TV Limited (Aurora, Ont.)
Metro Cable TV Limited (Burlington, Ont.)

Cable television carriage of Global Communications represents a unique situation since Global's coverage area is all of Southern Ontario. Since the Global System consists of a number of transmitters broadcasting on different channel frequencies, it is desirable, wherever possible, for the system to be carried on a uniform cabel channel in order to enable easy identification. Channel 3 appears to be the optimum choice since it is, or can be made, available on most cable systems. The Commission indicated in letters sent to cable television licensees on September 19, 1973 that Global should be carried on a common channel wherever practical and that the best choice is channel 3.

The Commission requires licensees to provide for the carriage of Global on channel 3 except in cases where distribution on channel 3 is not technically feasible or where it would result in undesirable disruption to a local station or to the locally programmed channel.

The part of the applications made by the following licensees for the carriage of Global are denied:

DECISION CRTC 73 – 648
NAPANEE/DESERONTO, ONT. – PART OF 7309354
Napanee-Deseronto Cablevision Ltd.

These licensees will be required to arrange for the carriage of Global on Channel 3 immediately upon commencement of broadcasting and advise the Commission of the resultant channel distribution changes.

GOOD NEWS AND BAD NEWS

First . . . The Bad News (For Us)

We have an extra large stock of both new and used vehicles. Here's Why:
We received a special late December factory shipment of new Fords and Mercurys and we've got our largest stock ever.
We have a large inventory of sharp late model used cars traded in on 1974 Fords and Mercurys.
We know people usually wait till Spring to trade up.
We don't like swiping snow off them and we're out of room to park them.

Now . . . . The Good News (For You)

You've got an excellent selection to choose from. Either in new or used cars.
We have to make better deals to lower our stock.
All reasonable offers will be accepted.
You can still buy 1974's from our large stock before the price increase.

On Tues. Jan. 15, the following hockey games were played in the Frontenac-Addington League: Harlowe won over Bradshaw, 11-4; Sharbot Lake beat Yarker 6-2 and Tamworth and Centreville played to a 2-2 tie.

On Sat. Jan. 20, Yarker won over Roblin 6-1; Tamworth and Sharbot Lake tied 1-1 and Bradshaw won over Henderson 5-4.

In the team standings Harlowe leads the league with 27 points, with Tamworth in second with 20. Centreville is in third place with 18, followed by Yarker with 13. Henderson is in fifth spot with 12 points and Roblin has nine. Sharbot Lake has eight points and Bradshaw is in the cellar with seven.

WARDEN FROM RICHMOND

When he was chosen Warden of Lennox and Addington County here last week, Bruce Cuthill, 54, became the seventh Reeve from Richmond Township to hold the post and the first since Thomas A. Richmond in 1963.

ATTENDED FUNERAL

Napanee was officially represented at the funeral of the late H. J. McFarland, Mayor of Picton, last Monday. Mayor Lorne Smart and two members of council attended: Cecil Baker and Grant Clark.

Selby In Slump, Loses 2 Hockey Games

When Selby Plastic tubing hockey team made their third appearance in the Brighton Tournament, it was somewhat of a success. That night, the Bantams scored a 2-1 win over Picton. It was the beginning of a series of games which saw Napanee skate and forecheck their way past the second place Picton club for the second time and past Gananoque for the first time this season. But since then, the Quinte-St. Lawrence club has not been overly impressive either at home or away.

Going into Thursday night's meeting with Picton, Selby Plastic had two wins and one loss on the basis of two home games and one game on Picton ice.

But the Picton club came up with a gritty display of checking and for the most part, the Napanee club moved into low gear. Disorganized and confused Napanee watched Picton roll up a 6-1 victory, Pete Finn scoring Napanee's only goal.

It was difficult to imagine that the night before Napanee had posted its first victory over Gananoque, aggressively checking and skating to protect their two goals scored by McCracken and Sergeant.

No improvement was evident on Saturday night as Picton again hustled to a 5-1 win, Napanee's only goal being scored by Jeff Sergeant.

Napanee Midgets Win Last 2 Games Of Season

By: D'ARCY McKITTRICK

The Napanee Pringle Midget all-star hockey team wrapped up their regular season schedule last week with a pair of victories, coming on the road against Trenton, the other at home with Gananoque being the victims.

Tues., Jan. 15, in Trenton, the locals came up with a hard fought 4—3 victory over their hosts. Neither team was able to get on the scoresheet in the opening stanza, so Napanee took the initiative with two goals early in the second period. Bob Simpson scored on a pass from Ed Murray before the period was a minute old. Five minutes later Ed Murray again set up a tally.

This time Roger Mills picked up the goal. However Trenton replied with a pair of goals to even things up before the final 20 minutes began. Joe Vajda and Dan Rice were the marksman. Napanee outscored Trenton 2—1 in the last period to secure the win. Bill Kimmett accounted for both of Napanee's markers, one being unassisted, the other occurring with the help of Brian Munroe. Tom Manley scored for the losers.

Saturday night before a large home town crowd, Napanee recorded the first victory of the season against Gananoque. Gene Stacey recorded a power play goal for the vicitors to open the scoring, Napanee replied with a pair of the same before the end of the period. Tim Davey scored the first with the help of Roger Mills and Al Benn, while Dale Elliot set up Terry Brady for the second.

The lone second period goal came off the stick of Gananoque's Stan Johnston. In the final stanza, four goals were scored in less than one minute of play. Bob Simpson struck first at 12:03 from Mills and Davey, followed by Johnston of Gananoque at 12:36. Dale Elliot then tallied twice at 12:44 and 12:50 to end the rush. Terry Brady assisted on both, Howie Mahon assisted on the first. The visitors' Gene Stacey closed the gap to one goal late in the period, but not late enough as Bob Simpson salted away the victory in the last minute of play. Al Benn and Brian Munroe were in on the play. Final score, Napanee 6, Gananoque 5.

Tax Critic To Speak At Rotary Dinner

An outspoken critic on Canada's tax policies, particularly those involving small businesses, John Bulloch is coming to Napanee. He is president of the Canadian Federation of Independent Business and will speak at a Rotary Club dinner here on Tues. Feb. 12.

Mr. Bulloch has been president of the federation since it was formed in 1971 as a national political action organization measuring and representing the views of small and medium-sized Canadian-owned enterprises. He was an instructor in business and finance at Ryerson Polytechnical Institute in Toronto until becoming involved in political affairs with the Federal Government's publication of its White Paper on Taxation in 1969.

Mr. Bulloch, 40, found the most significant experience of the tax battle was the realization that no national business organization or political party was responding to the special needs and problems of the great majority of Canadian businesses.

The evening dinner meeting planned by Rotary will also be a "Ladies' Night" President Garnet Mills says.

Farm Minister To Address Milk Banquet

The Ontario Minister of Agriculture and Food, the Hon. William Stewart, has accepted an invitation to be the guest speaker at the annual banquet of the Lennox and Addington County Milk Committee, Grant Huyck, secretary of the committee announced Monday. The minister is expected to talk about the dairy industry, farm labor problems and the general future of agrieulture as a whole.

The banquet, the biggest social event for farmers during the winter months, will take place at 7 o'clock in the evening, Feb. 8 at the cafeteria of the Napanee District Secondary School In addition to the guest speaker, a local musical group, the ABCs, will entertain the crowd, which is expected to number close to the 400 mark. But in contrast with other years, there will be no dance after the meal.

The banquet will be strictly a social affair. The annual meeting of the milk producers will be held a week later at the Township Hall in Selby. The date has been set for Feb. 14, at 8 o'clock in the evening and it will be at that occasion that elections and other business matters will be dealt with.

Roy Rogers, the 42 year old Chairman of the County Milk Committee has suffered two attacks of heart trouble during the past weeks, and he will not be acting as chairman for the banquet. Ray Brown, of Centreville, the chairman of the banquet committee will take over that function, but Mr. Rogers is planning to chair the annual meeting the next week.

Notices to the 325 milk producers left in the county, down from some 400 at the 1973 annual meeting, have been sent out by secretary Huyck.

Body Of Man Found Near Snowmobile

The body of a 73-year old Odessa man, Kenneth Alfred Mack Ryder was found Monday morning following a short search after he had failed to return Sunday night from a snowmobile trip.

Mrs. Ryder told police she had not become alarmed earlier because her husband occasionally spent the night in a bunk he has in his auto workshop. She became concerned when he did not return in the morning.

Mr. Ryder who operated an auto wrecking business in Odessa left about 5:45 on Sunday evening. His body was found by a neighbour just 400 feet from his house in Odessa, lying beside the snow machine.

Neighbors assisted in the search and he was found between 10 and 11 o'clock in the morning.

According to police, Mr. Ryder died of a heart attack.

The Consumer Protection Act protects YOU, the consumer

Cooling Off Period

Last fall I signed a contract in my home to have $3,700 worth of aluminum siding installed on my house. As a down payment I wrote the company a cheque for $700. The next day I decided that I couldn't afford the job, so I telephoned the dealer to cancel the contract. That afternoon, the siding was dumped on my driveway. I immediately wrote the dealer a registered letter cancelling the contract, but haven't received my $700. Is there any way to get my deposit back?

Yes. The Consumer Protection Act allows for a cooling off period in which you can cancel a contract by registered mail or by letter personally delivered within two days after the contract has been signed. (The postmark is considered the delivery date.) A TELEPHONE CALL IS NO GOOD. This cooling off period applies only when the contract has been signed in a place other than the seller's place of business, for example, in your home. In this case, the dealer must return your $700, because you notified him correctly.

Unsolicited Goods

Last month I received three hardcover books by mail. I didn't request these books so I set them aside. Now, the company is billing me $35. I seem to have misplaced them and suspect they have been thrown out by mistake. Do I have to pay these people?

No, you don't. The Consumer Protection Act deals with unsolicited goods and credit cards. You are not responsible for any unsolicited goods delivered and you have no legal obligation as to their use or disposal, unless you know the goods are intended for another person. If unsolicited goods are sent to you, you can either keep the goods or throw them out.

Another tip – if you receive an unsolicited credit card you have no legal obligation as to its use or disposal unless you accept the card in writing or you purchase goods with it. In this case you are responsible for the goods purchased. But, if you don't want the card simply cut it up and throw it out.

Contracts

I recently spent $880 on a home food plan which was supposed to supply me with meat and other food essentials for six months. The first of the six installments of food couldn't have been worth more than $30. I checked with the seller and he said that the contract I'd signed called for only $233 worth of food. The balance, $647, included charges for administration, meat cutting, packaging, delivery and the salesman's commission. The contract stated a lump sum of $880 for goods and services. Is there any way I can get out of the deal?

In this case, the Consumer Protection Act protects you because the seller didn't itemize the cost of the goods and service charges involved. Because of this, the contract is void. The Act states that any executory contract of $50 or more has to include:

1. Name and address of both the seller and buyer.
2. Description of goods and services.
3. Itemized price of goods and terms of payment.
4. A statement of security if credit is involved.
5. A statement of warranty or guarantees, if any.
6. The signatures of both parties.

If a contract fails to include one of the above items, it is void. You should always read and understand every detail.

Visit To Homeland 'Glorious South American Holiday'

By: DON SWAIN

It was a journey home for Christmas for Mr. and Mrs. Mike daSilva, 179 First Ave., Napanee and their two youngest children, Jacqueline, 13 and Rodney, 7, when they flew to South America for a three-week vacation in December.

Mrs. daSilva, a member of the production staff of The Beaver, has provided a summary of the highlights of the visit. Some time was spent in Maracaibo, Venezuela, but the most interesting things happened in their homeland, Guyana.

The country is the former British Guiana which obtained its independence in 1966. For the daSilva's it was the first trip home in 11 years.

The first stop on the vacation trip was Maracaibo where the daSilva's stayed with friends of Mrs. daSilva, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Holder. Mr. Holder is the chief administrative manager for the Shell Oil Co., in the area and the Holders took their guests on a trip to the Andes mountains. Enroute they visited the town of Lagunillas where the Shell Co operates the oil fields, and this of course they found very interesting especially in the light of to-day's energy-crisis. The drive up the mountains was most picturesque as they drove high into the mountains. They stayed at a hotel called the Tibesay. The hotel is 800 feet up the mountain and is named for an Indian maiden. Although that part of South America is a land of continuous summer, sweaters would have been comfortable in the refreshing mountain air.

Mrs. da Silva found Maracaibo to be a beautiful city with many parks and fountains. Some are just avenues of luminous fountains. There were parties arranged in the evening. The night clubs are a kind of discotheque with psychedelic lighting. The dining areas are mostly out of doors and the daSilvas delighted in dining under the stars in surroundings of Christmas lights and decorations.

The houses are built Spanish hacienda style, all on one level with granite patios both front and back. The lots are tastefully landscaped with vines of white, blue and pink hydrangea or red and pink hibiscus covering the iron fences and gates. As well, there were palm and fruit trees, with poinsettas evident everywhere. Orchids also bloom in abundance. The orchid is the national flower of Venezuela.

The all-too-short week in Maracaibo ended and the daSilvas left via Caracas for Georgetown, capital of their native Guyana. There was a stop over at Piarco, Trinidad, for six hours and they took a motor tour of Port-of-Spain.

After 11 years, Sir Walter Raleigh's legendary city of El Dorado looked great. While in Guyana, the daSilvas were house guests of Mr. daSilva's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Mannie daSilva.

The evening following their arrival, they were entertained at a cocktail party at their hosts home to which many of the daSilvas' old friends had been invited and there was much talking of "the good old times", when the daSilvas lived in the city.

There was a visit to the Bourda Market for Mrs. daSilva where she bought all kinds of fruit she had been craving since leaving the country to live in Canada. On her shopping trip, she bought spice mangoes, apple bananas, sappadillas, cashews, guava, papaw, starapple, doungs and her real favorite, "water coconut". This was the popular drink durng their 10-day stay in Georgetown and a favorite evening drink was gin and water coconut.

For the youngest member of the daSilva family, Rodney, the absence of television came as quite a shock. "What to do without his favorite TV shows?" But being able to play outdoors from daybreak until dark in summer weather, Rodney soon forgot about television.

Mrs. daSilva found it "a special delight" to attend a few of the Christmas Novena masses at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. These "Novenas" have been taking place for at least 125 years from Dec. 15 to Dec. 23 inclusive. What is truly remarkable about them is that they are held in the mornings at five o'clock. As a child, Mrs. daSilva recalls attending these novenas with her parents and it means getting up at four o'clock and hoping to find a seat because there is standing room only after 4.45 a.m.

Another significant event for the daSilvas was attending the Christmas Eve midnight mass at the church where they were married. It was exactly as Mrs. daSilva remembered it and filled to capacity.

For Mrs. daSilva, a visit to the Ursuline Convent where she attended St. Rose's High School was a must. She enjoyed the brief time spent with the nuns some of whom had taught her while she was attending school there.

Mr. daSilva passed up a call at his old school, St. Stanislaus College in order to take the children on a visit to the zoo which both children thoroughly enjoyed. Mr. daSilva did however get a chance to meet again Rev. Father Marion who was principal of the college when Mr. daSilva attended school, as he was a guest at a party welcoming the daSilvas.

The daSilvas showed their daughter "Jackie" the hospital where she was born. The children were also shown the house where Mrs. daSilva lived and was married from and the house where she was born. They also saw and visited the building of the company where Mr. daSilva worked before coming to Canada. Another interesting sight for them was the St. George's Cathedral, one of the tallest wooden buildings in the world.

The 21 days were spent in shopping and sightseeing and visiting or being entertained by friends in the evening. Mrs. daSilva describes the experience as "a round of parties and outings and a true delight to meet so many friends and relatives."

Christmas day was spent with Mr. daSilva's brother and his family and other relatives. Turkey, which is a delicacy in Guyana, to her horror sells at $3.50 per pound. "I silently vowed never to grumble about the price of turkey here again," she adds.

Christmas night, they were invited to a new hotel in Georgetown, the "Pegasus". It is a beautiful new hotel built right on the seawall. It has been built in the round and thus all rooms have a view of the Atlantic Ocean which forms the northern boundary of Guyana.

Georgetown is a city of 75,000 and Guyana has a population of about 650,000 and the country has a total area of 83,000 square miles. As visitors, the daSilvas noted many more houses had been built in the city as many government housing schemes had been developed, with more being planned. Quite a few new industries have sprung up in the intervening years and many of the older firms have expanded considerably.

Another new addition to the city they noted, were the two independence arches that have been erected; one on the east bank on the motor route into the city from the airport and the other in Brickdam. Mrs. daSilva describes them "as beautiful monuments rising about 35 feet at the highest peak of the arch with the Coat of Arms for an independent Guyana — One People — One Nation — One Destiny".

There has been a substantial increase in the number of bicycles and cars ... thousands in fact, making driving and walking a real hazard.

The daSilvas had planned to spend some time in Jamaica but time ran out and it was soon Dec. 27 and time to board a plane for a direct flight home to Toronto from Georgetown, via Trinidad, Barbados and Antigua.

All in all, it was a "perfect" holiday, except for one incident. On Christmas Eve night, Mrs. daSilva was sitting in her sister-in-law's car, parked at the curb with her nephew with her in the car. As she was holding her wallet in her hand, a hand swiftly came through the open window and snatched the purse. Fortunately, there was only a bank draft in the wallet which had not been signed and could not be cashed. Inspector Roberts of the local police and the banks were notified and since her return, Mrs. daSilva has been reimbursed by the bank. Fortunately, there was nothing else of value in the wallet.

Looking back on her visit home, Mrs. daSilva remarks, "it was a glorious South American holiday."

A COLORFUL PONCHO and vest are reminders of a "glorious" three-week vacation to South America for Mrs. Mike (Bridget) daSilva who with her husband and two of their children revisited their homeland, Guyana in December.

Deseronto Council Moves Items To Closed Meeting

Deseronto Town Council at its regular meeting Monday night put forward most items of business to a special meeting being held tonight.

Council received a request from the Public Utilities Commission to hold a special joint meeting between the Town Council and the Commission on Wed., Jan. 23. The meeting to be held at 7:30 is to discuss the purchase and financing of a new utilities truck for the town. Councillor Peter Dickinson moved that the special meeting be arranged as requested, closed to the public, to discuss matters with the P.U.C., zoning questions and other matters.

A second letter from the P.U.C. requested that the town council give consideration to a program of improving street lighting in the town. This letter also enclosed a list of 11 intersections where it was proposed that the new type of mercury-vapor lights be installed. The approximate cost of installing such lights was quoted as being 170 each and the P.U.C. had forwarded the letter at that time that the council might have time to decide whether or not they wanted to institute such a program this year, partially or completely. At the suggestion of Reeve George Lyons, who chaired Monday's council meeting in the absence of Mayor James Sharpe, a motion was made to file this letter and deal with it at the Wednesday evening meeting as well.

A letter from O'Flynn and O'Flynn, solicitors, concerning the zoning of approximately 14 acres of land which is presently vacant in the town was also put on file until tonight's meeting. The property is under consideration for purchase by the above-mentioned firm's client (Bayview Construction Ltd.). Bayview Construction wish to subdivide the land for residential construction. The problem arises because the proposed new official plan for the Town of Deseronto designates this property as industrial. The property is located on the west side of Pearl Street, from Dundas Street to Park.

Expenses In Deseronto Exceeded Revenue

Councillor Peter Dickinson read a statement of revenue and expenses at Deseronto Town Council meeting on Monday evening for the chairman of the finance committee, Reeve George Lyons, as Mr. Lyons was taking the chair in the absence of Mayor James Sharpe. The statement showed that expenditures for the month of December exceeded revenue in the amount of $20,700.

Mr. Dickinson also had a special account to present in the amount of $430 for repairs to the town-owned recreation bus. This account was also to be charged to 1973, at which time approval was given for the repair work to be completed. Reeve George Lyons remarked that he seemed to remember the amount of $75 being given as an estimate of the cost when the matter was first brought up in 1973. However, Councillor Dickinson assured council that a very detailed bill was enclosed and that more repairs had been necessary than was at first expected.

Plan Use Of Bus For Dance

"Dial a bus" might be introduced in Deseronto, at least for one night. At the Deseronto Town Council meeting on Monday evening Councillor Jack Mitchell, chairman of the Community Centre committee of council, announced that the Community Centre Fund Raising Committee would be holding a dance at the Towne Cinema, Napanee, on Feb. 9 to raise money. Later in the evening, Councillor Marvin Brooks, chairman of the Recreation Committee, reported he had a request from the Community Centre Fund Raising Committee that they be allowed to use the town-owned recreation bus to transport people to and from the dance.

Councillor Mitchell explained that they had checked and found no suitable halls were available in Deseronto. Mr. Mitchell has also been in touch with the company providing insurance coverage for the bus and had been assured that such a venture would be covered. The request was therefore made of the recreation committee for permission to use the bus providing enough people were interested and the driver was one of the list of people permitted to drive the bus. Anyone interested was asked to contact Mr. Mitchell or a member of the Community Centre Fund Raising Committee. It was at this point that Councillor Peter Dickinson came up with the nickname "Deseronto Dial A Bus".

After more discussion pro and con it was mentioned that it has been the policy of the recreation committee to charge a minimal charge of 50 cents per person to cover the cost of gas. It was then moved by Councillor M. Brooks and seconded by Councillor Mitchell that permission be granted. The question was asked "What time does the bus leave? but that had not been decided as yet and the motion was then carried.

Deseronto UCW Hears Talk On Eskimos

Special guest speaker at Deseronto United Church Women's meeting on Thurs., Jan. 17, was Miss Linda Lott, formerly of Deseronto, and now a social worker at Eskimo Point. Miss Lott, who needed no introduction to the majority of her audience, was welcomed by Mrs. R. Hawley. She spoke of her work, the lifestyle of the Canadian Eskimo, and experiences she had living at Eskimo Point, just 400 miles south of the Arctic Circle. Her talk and the films she showed were very interesting, and much appreciated by an enthusiastic audience. Mrs. Gladys Gould, supply secretary, thanked Linda and presented her with a gift as a token of the group's appreciation.

The evening meeting of the afternoon and evening branches of United Church Women started with a pot luck supper. Mrs. H. Piercy opened the devotionals with the poem, "Song". The hymn "In Christ There Is No North or South" followed. Mrs. R. Hawley read verses 18 and 19 from the 13th Chapter of Matthew, "Missions Today" was read by Mrs. Piercy. The devotionals closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Following Miss Lott's informative talk the general meeting was held. Minutes of the executive meeting were read and discussed. The treasurer's report was given. Mrs. Gould reported on the supply committee. A report was given on the activities planned for 1974 the first of which will be a bake sale scheduled for Fri., Feb. 15.

WHITE HAS NO REGRETS ABOUT TIME DECISION

Ontario Treasurer John White said Wednesday he had no regrets about the cabinet's decision last week not to go on daylight time.

Despite objections from some, Mr. White said, he thought "nearly all of our citizens think we were wise to stay on standard time."

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

The United States went on daylight time last Sunday as an energy-saving device, but Ontario studies indicated the savings in this province would be minimal.

Mr. White said in an interview after Wednesday's cabinet meeting that last Thursday's decision not to go on daylight time was criticized the same day by a number of people who said the decision was a mistake.

"However, from that day to this, I haven't heard any further ramifications," he said.

The treasurer said he had few objections from border areas that were reported to be unhappy because Ontario wasn't on the same time as the U.S.

"I have heard indirectly that Windsor is not very well pleased but I haven't heard anything directly," said Mr. White. "I haven't heard from any other towns."

Ontario rejected daylight time after complaints that children should not be sent to school in darkness.

"I myself thought this morning at 7 o'clock that it is pretty dark to send youngsters to school at what would be 8 a.m. fast time."

Today's homemakers — be they male or female — must be canny shoppers to make the best use of their grocery dollar.

PLAN TO SAVE: Plan meals for at least a week in advance using the weekly A&P ads to take advantage of price specials and to plan variety in menus. Group similar items on your list — e.g. meats, produce, canned goods, etc., so that it will be easy to follow the list in the store. Plan to be flexible. If you see a special buy — such as the many on this week's "Dollar Sale" at A&P — plan to stock up and save.

COMPARE TO SAVE: Analyze and compare the cost of convenience products against the quality cost and time of preparing similar "homemade" items.

STORE FOODS PROPERLY TO SAVE: Buy amounts that you can store easily. Vegetables such as potatoes can be stored in a dry, cool, dark place for a long period. Extra stocks of canned goods can be stored in the basement on shelves or in cartons in an out-of-the-way location.

In Loving Memory

McCULLOUCH — In loving memory of our dear Aunt and Uncle, Mr. and Mrs. William McCullouch who passed away May 20, 1953 and January 28, 1973 respectively.
The stars tonight are shining
Upon two lonely graves

Ones we could not save.
We mourn for them in silence,
No eyes can see us weep,
But many silent tears are shed
While others are asleep.
Always remembered by Margaret and Francis McDonald and family. 4a

SHETLER — In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Catherine Mary who passed away January 22, 1973.

And forever she will be in our thoughts.
Always remembered by husband Gerry, daughter Judy, son-in-law Philip, and grandchildren Derek, Andrea and Angela. 4ap

THOMPSON — In loving memory of a dear wife, mother and grandmother, Ethel Mae, who passed away January 27, 1970.

CONWAY — In loving memory of a dear wife, mother and grandmother, Mabel Conway who passed away January 23, 1967.
A silent star shines o'er a grave not very far away,
There sleeps the one we can't forget,
And dawns another year today.
She would not wish for sadness,
She never cared for fuss but,
Just to be remembered and loved by all of us.
Ever remembered by husband, Morley and family. 2a

ASSELSTINE — In loving memory of a dear wife and mother Helen, who passed away Feb. 5, 1970.
God knew that she was suffering
That the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed her weary eyelids
And whispered, "Peace be thine."

By the valley of rest so fair.
Some day, we know not when,
We will meet our loved one there.
Always remembered by husband Bruce and family. 42p

BYRON PERRY

Oil Firm Cites Local Dealer For Motto On Customer Service

This is another in a series of articles on Napanee businesses with information about the kind of business being carried on and other interesting features about the people who operate the particular business.

By DON SWAIN

"The people of this town have been awfully good to me. I like to travel but Napanee is a great town to come home to." These comments sum up Byron Perry's response to the manner in which the residents of Napanee and area have been his customers during 25 years in business.

If Mr. Perry had it to do over again, he says there is nothing he would do differently. He is a happy man. Happy with his work and he enjoys meeting the public.

Just recently, he received his 25-year plaque from Shell Oil Company as the operator of Perry's Shell Service on Dundas St., E.

Before going into the service station business, he operated a fuel business. He had an office on East St., and coal sheds at the CNR tracks at the north end of town and in Deseronto.

Mr. Perry started doing business in his present location in 1955. It was not as a service station that the site attracted him. There was a large building there and two gas pumps near the street property line. Mr. Perry wanted the building to store and service the seven trucks he had on the road, operating his fuel business.

The service station business grew to the point where the Shell company from whom Mr. Perry was leasing the premises, decided about eight years ago that a modern service station was needed. The older building was torn down and the present building constructed. Mr. Perry then bought the entire property from Shell.

In the meantime, he had opened a hardware store next door which carried automotive supplies and general hardware.

With the growth of the service station business, Mr. Perry sold the hardware and fuel business and concentrated all his efforts on building up business in the service station end.

"Gas is the big end of it," he emphasizes. "Give them good service at the pumps and the first thing you know, they are asking for other services."

The Shell company is running a contest in its dealer magazine, inviting dealers to send in ideas on successful service station management. Mr. Perry has just received a cheque for $10 for his idea which he wrote down and sent in: "I've always found out that to treat people the way you would like to be treated yourself is all that is necessary."

Last year, he received an award from Shell for service station maintenance that was reported in the company's dealer magazine.

He has a staff of 13 and the station is open long hours. Every weekday it is open from six o'clock in the morning until midnight and on Sundays, it is open from seven o'clock until 11 o'clock at night.

His brother Jack is manager of the service station, and Mr. Perry also has two nephews in the business with him, Tony Perry and Robert Perry.

The reason for the long hours is not just to build sales of gasoline. Mr. Perry points out that many people like to be around the station when their car is being serviced. The station has four bays and does general repair work, with two licensed mechanics on staff. During regular working hours in the day, people can't of course, be at the station when their car is being serviced and Mr. Perry keeps the station open long hours to accommodate his customers.

He still does a good deal of "pump work" himself and he runs, doesn't walk, out to the pump island to serve a customer when a car drives in.

He is a firm believer in a variation of the old slogan that the Packard Motor Car Company used to have. "Ask the man who owns one." The rule Mr. Perry goes by is "If you get people happy they'll talk to others."

Mr. Perry does not find time for many outside interests but he does like to travel and he and Mrs. Perry plan on taking about three trips a year: winter, summer and spring.

Mrs. Perry helps with the bookkeeping and is an ardent curler. Mr. Perry says he tried the sport once, pulled a leg muscle and decided that curling wasn't for him.

"Repeat business" is a big part of the business and he emphasizes that he has had "tremendous support from his customers. They have been really good to us."

REIDVILLE W.I.

Reidville Women's Institute held their January meeting at the home of Mrs. Harold Brown.

The president, Mrs. Douglas Brown, opened the meeting with the Opening Ode and Mary Stewart Collect in unison.

The roll call "How Do You Cope with Children's Arguments?" was answered by 15 members.

The minutes were read and approved.

Communications and thank you notes were read. Mrs. Clarence Brown was chosen as the delegate to the officers' conference in Waterloo in May.

Mrs. Don Hannah invited the members to hold the February meeting at her home.

It was moved that all bills be paid.

The meeting was given over to the program convenor on family affairs, Mrs. Ray Brown who chose as her topic, "Children."

Mrs. Brown gave an interesting talk and read several clippings in relation to communicating love for children. She read a reading, "The Rebel." A reading was given, "As We Look To The Future", by Mrs. Robert Fallot and "Children Lean By What They Live", by Mrs. Millie Thompson.

A contest on the likes and dislikes of the individual proved very interesting.

The meeting closed with the Queen after which the hostess and lunch committee served lunch.

MILLHAVEN W.I.

The January meeting of the Millhaven W.I. was held in the home of Mrs. Grace Amey, Bath, who was hostess for the evening.

In the absence of Mrs. J. Franklin, president, Mrs. C. Millar, 1st Vice-president filled in for her. The meeting was opened in the usual way. Roll call: one minute speech from a topic drawn from a hat, 11 members and three visitors answered. Most answers caused an outburst of hilarity.

During the business period a letter of thanks from the Children's Aid was read. The Summary day for the course "Baked In A Pie" will be held at Morven on January 24th. Under new business it was decided to have a euchre evening in March in The Layer Cake Hall. Mrs. C. Millar, treasurer of the Layer Cake Hall Restoration Committee reported, that a donation was received of $50.00 from the Bath Fire Department and the Millhaven W.I. donated $11.00, receipts from a sale.

The convener in charge of the program, Mrs. C. Head, invited Mrs. Flora Pomeroy, to talk about and show her collection of old preserve-jars and sealers and a collection of antique and modern buttons. Mrs. W. Beggs thanked Mrs. Pomeroy for the very interesting display and entertaining talk.

Mrs. Grace Amey was thanked for opening her house for the meeting. Motto for the evening was: All the flowers of tomorrow are the seeds of today.

A pleasant social hour followed.

Deseronto Community Centre Fund Passes $30,000 Total

The Deseronto and District Community Centre Building Fund continues to spiral with donations from industries, service clubs, the council of the Mohawks of the Bay of Quinte Band, and private individuals. The committee will be holding their next regular meeting on Tues., Jan. 29 and anyone interested is welcome to attend. The committee met with Deseronto Town Council on Monday ngiht. The meeting with the Town Council was in a "committee of the whole" meeting following the regular council meeting and was to discuss progress of the community centre project.

Tony Elmer, a local resident and businessman, has contributed a great deal toward the community centre. Since the early fall his cash donations, pledges, and other contributions have amounted to more than $500. Most recently, he donated a Christmas stocking and, in co-operation with the Deseronto Volunteer Firemen, sold tickets on the stocking. This venture netted the community centre approximately $75 which is included in the $500 mentioned previously.

A GAMES NIGHT, entitled Frosty's Foster Frolic was held in the main gymnasium of Napanee District Secondary School to raise funds for the foster child in Thailand, 13-year-old Somsi Promyea, for whom the Students' Council at NDSS accepted responsibility in 1972. Will Rowe was in charge of the program which saw all "houses" in the school participate in helping with displays and exhibits. The program was well supported by the public and a total of nearly $300 was raised. The various "houses" into which the school is divided were assessed on a proportionate basis and the necessary $140 has been forwarded to the agency which looks after the foster child.

HOLD DESERONTO MEETING ON HASTINGS COUNTY PLAN

By CATHY HUNTER

"We are trying to get the best official plan for everyone without showing prejudice or discrimination." said Nyal Carney, director of Hastings County Planning Board, at the meeting held Thur., Jan. 10, at Deseronto Town Hall. The meeting was to discuss the proposed official plans for the Town of Deseronto and for Tyendinaga Township. Although over 50 people were in attendance, barely a dozen were from the Town of Deseronto. A few of those present had attended the meeting held in Tweed on Wednesday evening but were unable to get answers to their questions due to the unusually large crowd and the format of the questions asked.

The meeting was chaired by Horace Casey, Warden of Hastings County and was very interesting and informative. Most questions asked concerned the rural areas although, in some cases, would apply equally to urban areas such as the Town of Deseronto. Nyal Carney and Mrs. Mary Moraz, who represented the consulting firm of Totten, Sims, Hubicki and Associates Limited, answered most of the questions.

The land use map for the Town of Deseronto shows an area for future development of the town. This matter seemed to be of prime concern to local residents.

It would be impossible to go into all the details which were covered during the evening. However, anyone who is interested can check the planning directories and land use maps at their municipal offices. Copies are also available at both local and school libraries.

When the proposed plans become official (which will be prior to the passing of the related bylaws) the line of authority will go something like this:-

1. The County Council will legislate into law those policies they feel necessary. They will also have the authority to deal with minor variances (as will local councils).

2. The Hastings County Planning Board will have no legal power. Their duties will include advising the County Council on policy.

3. The Land Division Committee, an independent body of appointed officials who are not in municipal employ or members of municipal or county councils, will deal only in land severances.

Before the bylaws can be passed they must be circulated to all ratepayers, must be advertised for 14 days and complaints invited. Then they have to be reviewed and, if necessary, a hearing must be held. "The plan basically provides the rules for the game." said the planning director during this discussion.

During the meeting Thursday evening, one man asked if there was any truth to a rumour he had heard that members of the Land Division Committee received $100 per day for sitting on the committee. Mr. Carney answered by explaining the appointment of officials on the committee and that they are paid on a per diem basis at the rate of $27.50 per day, plus mileage. They meet only once during the winter months. However, they meet on an average of once a month the rest of the year.

A complaint was received that cottagers received questionaires to complete and the gentleman complaining felt this showed prejudice. Mrs. Moraz explained that recreation was an important source of income in Hastings County and could not be ignored. She stated, "Recreation is going to be developing greatly, especially in the northern part of the county. "We wanted some information concerning this and the only way of contacting most cottagers was to send out questionaires. The permanent residents of the area are, however, represented quite strongly by their local councils."

"You cannot make people work the land but you can help to prevent it from being broken down." This statement was made during one of the many discussions on land severances, particularly as they concerned prime, agricultural land, a concern to all present.

Some of the other items discussed were: in-filling; strip development; advantages and disadvantages of rural industrial development. families of farmers and retiring farmers and their position regarding land; sizes of lots in different areas; and some of the inconsistencies which were in the present proposals.

In conclusion, the statement made by Mr. Carney that, "The plan looks after what is going to happen in the future. You can not really go back to what is already settled."

This sums up a lot of the questions in the minds of the interested residents in attendance.

The number of soil samples being submitted for testing are arriving at the Laboratory at such a rate that the technicians are having difficulty keeping up. Normally it takes 10 to 14 days to run a sample but now our office will be receiving reports 2 weeks behind schedule.

An unusually large number of tests are requested this year. Farmers have had one of the best falls with reference to weather in years. More plowing was done and more time was available to do the sampling. Even the suggestion of possible fertilizer shortages may have affected the number of samples taken. Isn't it a fact, that when shortages are pending, many get on the band wagon to get a piece of the action. When chocolate bars were rationed during the war every one wanted additional candy. Some U.S.A. reports have people storing gasoline in all sorts of containers — even in a bathtub.

The number of soil samples being taken is a good sign. After all we have been advising farmers to test for years with the slogan "Don't Guess" — Soil Test and that only rich farmers can afford to use fertilizer without a soil test.

Energy sources are required to produce fertilizers. Since engergy appears to be a limiting factor, overfertilizing seems to be improper from a supply point of view as well as an economic one. Optimum rates will not pollute the environment providing good timing and management is employed.

Problems of fertilizer supply may excite some of our farmers. Nitrogen stocks are low, demand is high and transportation facilities are scarce. Production problems with phosphate make it impossible to obtain the popular analyses such as super and triple blend. Substitutes with less phosphate will have to be used. In potash there are production controls, low inventories and freight car shortages.

This all adds up to a situation of shifting to substitutes. The best advice is to seek out your dealer early, tell him of your requirements and be prepared to accept alternatives. Perhaps it is not a question of shortages but only one of tighter supply!!

DID YOU KNOW?

That a 1400 pound cow needs 15—20 pounds of roughage dry matter per day or 15% to 17% fibre in her Total diet. Why? She needs this to maintain her butter fat level.

Deseronto Ratepayers' Group Postpones Electing Officers

Deseronto Ratepayers' Association cancelled election of officers at their meeting Thurs., Jan. 17 due to the low attendance. Of the 18 present, only 15 members of the association, and they voted to hold election of officers at the next regular meeting, Feb. 7. General feeling was that poor weather and conflicting functions being held at the same time were responsible for the low attendance.

General discussions were held on area highways and roads, water filtration, utilities bills received from the auditor and other matters.

The association voted to request that Police Chief Carl Beattie be invited to attend a meeting at his convenience to give his views on what the ratepayers could do to provide assistance and support to the local police department.

A motion was made to contact the Ontario Ministry of Transportation and Communication requesting that something be done to improve the lighting at the intersection of No. 2 and 49 Highway and the previous No. 502 Highway which is now a county road. Lighting at this intersection, on a main approach to Deseronto, was felt to be insufficient.

The association also planned on asking for support of Deseronto Town Council and Tyendinaga Township Council in this endeavor, which it was felt would be beneficial to many area motorists.

Hints to the homemakers

POTATOES but they're fattening—are they?

Let's take a look at "The Potato".

A medium potato—average serving 1/3rd of a pound has a caloric value of less than 100 calories, similar to ½ grapefruit, an apple, 2 tablespoons of sugar—and is much more satisfying to a hungry diner or dieter.

POTATOES Are they Nutritious?

YES the potato calories carry good nutrition. One potato can give you half your Vitamin C requirements for the day. It also contains appreciable amounts of B Vitamin, thiamin, riboflavin, niacin, plus some Vitamin A, iron, calcium and phosphorous. There is some easily assimilated protein in potato too. And they contain practically NO fat.

All in all the potato is everyone's friend, children, adults, dieters alike, and it is one of the worlds most versatile vegetable.

POTATO CALORIE CHART

1 medium potato (5½ ounces) Baked with one tablespoon sour cream	96 calories 126 calories
Baked or boiled with one tablespoon butter	196 calories
Mashed ½ cup serving—milk only added	97 calories
Mashed ½ cup serving—milk plus 1 tablespoon butter added	197 calories
Potato Chips (10) 2-inch dia.	110 calories
French fries 10 sticks 2 x ½ x ½ in.	155 calories

Some Interesting Potato Serving Suggestions

1. Mix sour cream, onion soup mix or use yoghurt and onion soup mix.
2. Flavour sour cream with horseradish, lemon juice, salt and pepper.
3. Place a slice of mild, sharp or even roquefort cheese in gash in potato — return to oven to soften.
4. Sprinkle buttered potatoes with grated Parmesan cheese.
5. Add a salad dressing or low calorie dressing and extra seasoning to top of baked potato.
6. Any chip dip made with sour cream, cottage cheese or cream cheese will make an interesting topping.

HASH—WHAT IS IT?

Hash is the kind of leftover that in a restaurant is sold at a high price and very popular with the men. Even if it falls in the budget category at home—it still rates high as a family favourite.

Make the following combination depending on the ingredients at hand.

Combine equal parts of diced or chopped cooked potatoes and cooked meat—add 1 onion, chopped and cooked for each 4 cups of mixture; toss together and then add enough liquid (water, milk, cream, gravy or bouillon) to moisten. Season to taste with salt, or seasoning salt and pepper. Place a little fat in a frying pan and press in the mixture. Cook slowly until browned on bottom and completely heated. Fold in half—serve omelette style. Garnish with parsley or chives.

Variation: Make 4 hollows in the top of above and drop an egg into each. Season and bake in 350°F. oven for 10 minutes.

"Make From Scratch" Hash

2 tablespoons oil or shortening
1 pound ground beef
½ green pepper, chopped
1 onion, chopped
3 potatoes, peeled and grated
salt, pepper
½ cup hot water
½ cup catsup

Brown meat in hot fat—add onion and green pepper, cook 2 minutes.
Stir in grated potatoes and salt, pepper and water.
Cover and cook slowly for 25 minutes until the bottom browns.
Spread catsup on top and brown under the broiler.
Serve with a green salad; sliced carrots and an old fashioned rice pudding (with raisins).
